By Telegram to THE TIMES. Manila, Sept. 8.—At an extraordinary session of the Revolutionary congress, held at Tarlac, August 24th, Aguinaldo was elected president and Mabini made chief of supreme court and Gonzaga attorney general. The conservative element is in control. Gonzaga was president of last peace commission. There is no foundation for the report that Aguinaldo had declared himself dictator.

journd to meet upon call of the chairman.

SECRET SESSION

Of English Cabinet Held to Consider the Transvaal Situation.

MONDAY

The Fate of Dreyfus Will Be Made Known

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Rennes, Sept. 8.—There was great demand for admission to the Dreyfus trial today. The Lord Chief Justice of England was an interested spectator, being allowed a seat in the rear of the judges. M. DeMange occupied the whole session with an able plea for Dreyfus and will require two hours more to finish. It is suggested that M. Labori may not speak at all, owing to the antagonism between him and President Joubert. It is certain a verdict will not be reached before Monday.

By Telegram to THE TIMES. Rennes, Sept. 8.—The announcement is made that the verdict in the Dreyfus case will be rendered tomorrow. Labori will not speak. The almost universal feeling is that Dreyfus will be condemned.

HAS OBJECTIONS.

The Columbus Press-Post wants the Democratic editors to meet at Columbus and discuss and agree on a plan of campaign. The suggestion has some merit, but it also presents some very serious objections. The Press-Post should know that the Republican editors have had experience in this line, and what they have gained by interchange and union has, perhaps, been more than offset by loss of caste and character. The people thought these papers were bound by at least a most selfish compact to a certain course and the editors lost self-respect because they yielded up what independence and originality there were in them. Then, worse than all, there grew up a suspicion that they were gathered only in a common desire to yank something from old man Hanna's pork barrel.

The Press-Post has, perhaps, observed, too, that the paper that is the most ranting and raving party organ, without ever a thought that its soul is its own, most needs the nourishment of outside aid.

A Republican exchange says President McKinley has promised the pensioners, or would-be pensioners of Ohio, that he will have Hoke Smith's rules revoked. That is about as near the truth as the G. O. P. organs ever get. Col. Brown, a Republican politician of Zanesville, says the President promised him he would have H. Clay Evans' rulings modified. The difference between the two statements is that Hoke Smith was, and Evans is, commissioner of pensions, and it is against the latter that the expectant pensioners are raising the howl.

The trusts will soon put up the price of silks and ribbons. Then woe unto the trusts, for that will affect woman. It was woman who brought disaster to the tariff, because it raised the price on pearl buttons, and she can be just as destructive to trusts, whenever she finds her pocket-book is immediately affected.

Building is making headway in Portsmouth under obstacles. Many of the biggest houses are held back because it is impossible to get the structural iron that enters into their erection.

And still the people's rights are defied and the waterworks books are yet concealed under order of the gang.

The question grows louder every day. "Why are the waterworks books concealed?"

With a double track street railway Portsmouth will look like a real, live city.

A WONDERFUL CURE.

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Read his editorial—From the Times, Hillsville, Va.: I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say farther to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore. Sold by Fisher & Streich, druggists.

Former Brutality in war.

Before a battle in former times the priests solemnly devoted to the gods the whole of the hostile army then in sight, and, if possible, no man of it was left alive. A writer in The Nineteenth Century says that when Hermann destroyed the great host of Varus into the forest depths all the Romans that escaped death in the battle were captured and led into the dark recesses, where every man of them was sacrificed upon hastily erected altars.

Latham, in his edition of Tacitus, quotes six contemporary authorities to show that this practice of concluding a victory with human sacrifices was customary among our Teutonic ancestors. Some crucified their prisoners, others hung them up to trees for archery practice, but in general a captive was either slain on the spot or else reserved to be sacrificed to the gods. Even when the progress of agriculture induced them to keep a majority of the prisoners alive to be slaves they appeased the gods for this indignity by increasing the tortures inflicted on the small remainder.

Gibbon describes how, before the blazing altar, every hundredth man's arms were hacked off him and, before his eyes, thrown into the flames. All that a red Indian would have done last century was freely practiced by our ancestors of 12 centuries ago. And the highest ideal of a man then included, as a duty, dark cruelty and gruesome revenge against all his enemies.

Wouldn't Wear the Crown.

The late William Morris' views on the laureateship, as made public in Mr. Mackail's biography, were peculiar and interesting. Mr. Gladstone was willing to offer Morris the succession to Tennyson; but, on being sounded, the socialist poet, although pleased with the honor, declined unreservedly, stating that, in his opinion, the function of poet laureate was that of a ceremonial writer of verse, and that the Marquis of Lorne, the languid literary son-in-law of Queen Victoria, was the finest person to fulfill it.

Japanese Ideas of Women.

The five worst maladies that afflict the female mind are indecency, discontent, slander, jealousy and silliness. Without any doubt these five maladies afflict seven or eight out of every ten women, and from them arises the inferiority of women to men. A woman should cure them by self-inspection and self-reproach. The worst of them all and the parent of the other four is silliness.—Cornhill Magazine.

Sweet Filling.

Tommy—I've got de toothache awfully.
Visitor—You should have the tooth filled, Tommy.
Tommy—I did have it filled. That's what makes it ache so.
Visitor—I never heard of such a thing. Did you have it filled with gold?
Tommy—No'm! Had it filled with gumdrops.—Chicago News.

STRAY NOTES

Of Interest Picked Up on the State Fair Grounds

By a Portsmouth Man for the Times
Readers—Some of Our People Who Are Taking in the Sights.

Columbus O., Sept. 7.—Fred Higley blew in this morning. He makes the welkin ring when he arrives. The show is pronounced by him, "The greatest of the great, Harum outdone." There's a shoe exhibit that takes Fred's eye. By the way, Portsmouth should have her factories represented, but she has not. What a shame!

Strange to say, newspaper row is not graced with an Enquirer cottage. It would be a big ad. for the Democratic candidate for governor, Hon. John McLean. The Press-Post of Columbus has the neatest building. Portsmouth papers will line up, no doubt, when Mr. Grimes becomes president.

William Dever and Charley Hayward, of Lucasville, have, beyond doubt, the premier exhibit of swine. They are taking the ribbon and the money everywhere. Some fence men have on exhibition a number of wild, ferocious, razor-back hogs from the wilds of the Indian territory that are attracting much attention. A bad boy yesterday said they came from New Boston.

Cox, the barber, is on the grounds. He is with a big Cleveland merchant display. He has his razor with him and is shaving Portsmouth people as a side issue.

The battle of San Juan is a wonderful piece of arrangement. The fire works are the finest ever put on by Paice. There are a number of amusing acrobatic acts interspersed that relieve the mind of the impressions of the awful reports of the artillery pieces.

Will Cutler, the new opera house manager, is here. He has appointed Frank White as his treasurer and ticket seller. Frank Pratt will probably have the stage. Henry Scott, Jr., will be chief usher. Mr. Scott will have as assistants the old crew that ushered when Mr. Grimes managed the house—Fred Higley, Hal Molster, Ed. Molster, Will Clayton, and so on. The opening bill will be "The Spider and the Fly," September 28th. This is quite an improvement over the opening Ex-Manager Johnson had. His choice was "A Child of the South," said to be an amateur affair just out of Cincinnati. Mr. Cutler can be relied upon to give the people first-class attractions. He will not work the theater for the benefit of a bar or other form of outside amusement, and still he is one of the boys.

Vol. Thompson is present with his horse, Black Beauty. It is a foregone conclusion that the animal will be up among the leaders at the finish. There are a number backing Black Beauty for first place.

Columbus, O., Sept. 8.—Judge James W. Bannon was a prominent visitor. He is known throughout the state and in many parts of the country. A state senator of New York, who is attending the fair, in speaking of the Judge, said: "He is considered one of the very best of railroad lawyers." He is a living example of what perseverance and hard study will do. He is of the self-made school; he came up from the bottom.

C. S. Cadot was conspicuous at the races. He looks a four-time winner. Ex-Commissioner John Stockham was also among the 450,000 people who witnessed Black Beauty, owned by Volney Thompson, win the first heat of the 2:20 trot in 2:20 1/4. "Deacon" Stockham led the cheering when the game animal came under the wire. But cheers and admiration don't win races, and Black Beauty didn't pull down first money.

Sam Hopkins is here taking in the parks and the fair. Young Myers and Pressler, of Eisman's and Fisher & Streich's, respectively, are away up front in the conspicuous class. Bob McAleer is circulating among the "antis," finishing everything he undertakes on time. He'd make a locomotive engineer. Prof. Smith, formerly of the Portsmouth schools, showed up today with a bevy of children. Terry Davenport viewed the grounds from a wheel.

The fair has always lacked a first-class barbershop. It is whispered that Colonel Frank White will be called to the front next year to show the people of Ohio how to arrange a handsome, up-to-date tonorial parlor.

Old Portsmouth swelled the crowd yesterday and today. It is estimated that 100,000 people were present yesterday and 75,000 today. The fair is a big success. A noticeable sight to those of a political turn is the numerous McLean buttons worn. If they were counted as votes he'd be elected by an overwhelming majority. As cheers will not win a horse race, so buttons will not win at an election. Talking with those who have influence and control votes one is led to infer McLean will be beaten between 10,000 and 20,000.

DOC WADDELE.

CONQUERED AT LAST.

Mill Street Resident Tells a Surprising Story of the "Little Conqueror."

The conqueror has been conquered at last, and many a reader of this, who has suffered from the refined torture of backache or kidney ache, will know how to cure it. Our representative interviewed Mrs. G. W. Clapper, of 85 Mill street, and from her obtained the facts of the following experience. They are true in every sense of the word, and much testimony must be convincing:

Mrs. Clapper says: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely routed a six-months-old case of backache and other kidney trouble. It had robbed me of sleep at night and comfort by day. It hurt me too sit down and it hurt me to walk. When I would go to rise, after having been sitting awhile, I would have to put my hands to my back to kind of ease the pain of rising. The conditions of the kidney secretions were not natural, and as I grew no better I determined to check it. My husband went to Fisher & Streich's drug store and obtained a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before a great while was thoroughly rid of all trouble. My kidneys or back did not ache. I can not be too outspoken in praising Doan's Kidney Pills for such ailments."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cent. Mailed by Foster-Milura Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by Fisher & Streich, druggist.

YORKTOWN HAPPENINGS.

Henry Molster was severely burned on the leg and foot Wednesday night by a piece of hot iron falling against him.

Mrs. John Dhlman is quite sick at the residence of Phil Emmert, New Boston.

Louis Elhoff, James Skelton and T. J. Basham were at the State fair.

Pat Conley is having his large business house raised to correspond with the street railway and pike.

Will Sell Pools.

"Shack" Hannahs will have the score-card privilege at the Chillicothe running races, September 13th-16th. Something unusual at a Chillicothe track will be permitted this year—book-making and pool-selling, and "money will be hung on the wire." "Imp," the record-holding runner of the world, will be an attraction, also.

TWO MEMBERS

Ran the Water Works Meeting Thursday Night.

Number of Bills Allowed and Tom Hall Sat Down on as Usual—Will Meet Again Next Week.

The water works board met Thursday evening in adjourned session. Those present were Mr. Blomeyer, Mr. Brandau, Secretary Sikes, Ex-Clerk Thomas S. Hall, Ex-Supervisor Jobe Phillips, a Times reporter and three spectators. Mr. Blomeyer suggested that probably they ought to wait for a Blade reporter, that the people may learn what was not done, but the time was up.

Secretary Sikes read the schedule, most of which were the bills paid by Ex-Clerk Hall. The schedule was allowed.

A Blade reporter came in. Mr. Hall then wanted a statement showing the bills he had paid, as he was out that much cash. The whole amount was about $123. Mr. Blomeyer suggested that the secretary would give him an order for his money in the same manner as other claims were paid.

Mr. Hall said he did not want the orders. All he wanted was a statement showing claims paid and reported.

Mr. Blomeyer said this meeting was held to take some action on getting certain streets ready for street paving, but as council had failed to take any action on the paving of Eleventh and Onifere the water works board would take no further steps until the question of paving these streets was definitely settled.

On motion of Mr. Brandau, water was ordered to Louis Pfleger.

Secretary Sikes read a communication from The J. Noble Water Clarifying Co. They claimed to have a device that would purify and clear the water, that they were successfully clearing water from the Missouri river.

Mr. Blomeyer said the board should secure the best result possible, as it was a duty they owed the citizens. On motion of Mr. Brandau the secretary was instructed to correspond with cities using their device.

Board then adjourned, to meet as soon as council met and acted on the street paving.

Grain-O Brings Relief to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee, but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c per package.

Resolutions

Of the King's Daughters society of the Second Presbyterian church, on the death of Miss Anna E. Purdum.

"The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken." The ties of friendship are severed one more and the gentle spirit of Anna E. Purdum has passed to the great beyond.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His wise and mysterious providence, has removed from us, by death, our beloved president; therefore be it

Resolved: That in her death this society of the Second Presbyterian church, and all with whom she was associated, have sustained a grievous loss.

Resolved: That her consistent christian life, united with her untiring labor and zeal in every good work which her hands found to do, shall be an incentive to every member of this society to continue faithful in the christian course.

Resolved: In this sad bereavement we recognize the hand of a loving or leading one of His beloved into green pastures and beside still waters. That the sudden removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all.

Resolved: That in sincere sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this society, a copy printed in the local papers, and a copy forwarded to the bereaved relatives.

THOUSANDS

Involved in This Citizens' Bank Compromise.

Assignees Want to Settle Cases With Mrs. C. A. Connell.

Application Made in Probate Court—Proposition to Surrender Certain Notes and Dividends.

Holcomb & Smith, assignees of the Citizens' Savings bank, filed an application asking permission to compromise a claim against Catherine A. Connell. On the 26th of June, 1893, an effort was made by the officials of the bank to prefer Catherine A. Connell, who was a large creditor of the bank, and she was given two notes aggregating $4,275.36, of Daniel F. Connell, deceased, which, if a preference, was contrary to law.

When the bank assigned, D. F. Connell owed the bank $5,598.36, upon which payments were made from time to time, aggregating nearly $2,000. The citizens' Savings bank, when it assigned, owed Catherine A. Connell $9,134.47. The officials of the bank sought to cancel the indebtedness of the Connell estate to the bank by assigning it to Catherine A. Connell as a credit on her claim, which, if the Connell estate was solvent would give her that much of a payment. Other transactions and dealings so far reduced the claim of Catherine A. Connell against the bank, that her certificate of deposit of more than $9,000 was surrendered, and she was given a new certificate in September, 1893, for $21,94.66, upon which she received dividends aggregating $370.48. Later a note of James Connell, for $375, due the bank, was assigned and delivered to Catherine A. Connell. It is represented by the petitioners, also, that the solvency of the Connell estate depends upon certain lands in Virginia, which, though considered of great value, are unmarketable at the present time.

The above matters are now in litigation in common pleas courts in two suits, and this compromise, if granted would settle these two suits.

In making this compromise Catherine A. Connell agrees to surrender what she has received from the bank and place parties in the same status as they were when the bank assigned. She further agrees to surrender her claim against the bank by reason of certificates and deposits, to return the dividends received, permit the assignees to keep the payments made on the Connell notes and pay the further sum of $300 and costs of suit. On their part, the assignees are asked to surrender the note against D. F. Connell and the notes against James Connell.

Men's Feet.

"Why don't you make the left shoe a little bigger, then?" asked the customer.

"Well," said the salesman, "the difference is usually not great, and it might not be enough so that it would be noticed if trying on shoes. And then it is not so great but what the difference in feeling of the two shoes disappears very soon. And then, too, in some cases the man's right foot is the larger, the man being right footed in this respect as men are sometimes left handed, the reverse of the common habit in the use of their hands. If shoes were commonly made with the left a little bigger than the right, to fit the majority of cases, they'd be worse than ever when you hit a right footed man. So the shoes are made alike in size, a man gets a pair that fit him comfortably to start with and they adapt themselves quickly to any slight differences in the feet."—New York Sun.

The Broker's Reply.

A youthful looking broker went into a Broadway store the other day to buy a new hat and laid his old one on the counter while waiting for the clerk to wait upon him. He happened to turn around as a Quaker came in in the garb unusual even in this cosmopolitan city, and smiled involuntarily at the odd sight. The Quaker took the broker for a salesman, and taking off his broad hat, held it out to the young man, saying: "Hast thou a hat like this, my friend?" "No," replied the broker, "and if I had I would not wear it." Then, noticing the look of surprise on the face of the grave old Quaker, he explained that he dealt in stocks, not in hats.—New York Tribune.

RICH

Strike of Coal Made Near
Bloom Switch Wednesday.Jackson Parties Strike a Four-Foot Vein of Wellston Coal of the Finest Kind—Their Plans.

Some Jackson county parties have been at work for several weeks putting down a coal shaft at Bloom Switch with the hope of striking the Wellston coal vein. Their expectations have been realized. Wednesday at a depth of seventy-two feet they struck a four-foot vein of coal, supposed to be the Wellston vein. The shaft was put down in the barn yard of the Kuhner property, within fifty feet of the railroad, and is considered a bonanza for the owners. This same vein can be reached anywhere in this vicinity at a depth of from seventy to one hundred feet. The Clare Iron company own about two thousand acres of land adjoining the Kuhner lands. They will begin operations at once to sink several shafts, and these lands may develop into great coal fields that will enable this city to secure cheap coal.

BAD JAKIE

Wanted to Thump His Father
Thursday NightBut Was Captured by an Officer and Went to Jail—Threw Bricks at the Stable.

Jacob Schumm, the young son of Carpenter Frederick Schumm, of West Seventh street, was placed under arrest yesterday evening about seven o'clock, for assaulting his father.

The trouble grew out of a quarrel about a buggy that the boy had used during the afternoon without his father's permission. He and a friend drove up to the "Dikes" and there went bathing, not returning until after dark.

Neighbors say the boy had been drinking and when his father reprimanded him, immediately showed his temper and threatened the parent with bodily harm. The mother and sisters took a hand in the affair and succeeded in getting the enraged lad out the alley gate. He renewed his threats and began storming the stable with brick-bats. He dared his father out in the alley, but Deputy Sheriff Ketter was summoned in the meantime and after a little trouble succeeded in landing the wild youngster in jail. The charge of assault was preferred against him in Squire Hall's court.

WARRANT

Brought Young Mr. Walden
Quickly to Time.He Slipped Into Town and Procured
a Marriage LicenseAnd Married the Young Woman Who Had Made Affidavit Against Him
—Sciotoville Sensation.

Charles Leslie Walden, a Sciotoville young man, and Miss Nannie Moots, of the same place, were married Thursday afternoon by Squire Haney, of Lawson Heights.

There is a story connected with the marriage, however, in which Squire Henry Hall and Deputy Sheriff Fred Ketter play a prominent part. Their connection dates back to Tuesday night, when a well-dressed young woman called at Squire Hall's residence and asked for a private conversation with him. The result of this talk was that a warrant was drawn up for Charles Leslie Walden, and the affidavit sworn to by the woman, whose name was Nannie Moots.

The papers were quickly placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Ketter, and that officer immediately set out for Sciotoville. A vigorous search for his man proved futile, and all he could learn was that the last seen of him was on the big road this side of Sciotoville the night before, talking to the girl. The man having relatives near Harrisonville, Ketter expected to find him there, but on reaching there could not find him. Finally, after about thirty miles of rough traveling, he was compelled to give it up altogether, coming back to this city.

Walden must have gotten a tip, for he managed to elude the officers, and Thursday quietly went to the court house and procured a marriage license and he and Miss Moots were married last night.

A Case of Badly Mismatched Civility
by the Younger Woman.

If anything roils a woman, it is to have some younger woman get up and offer her a seat in a street car. This misplaced civility infers that the older woman is to be considered on account of her age, when, in fact, there is little difference in years between the two.

I witnessed a droll bit of comedy the other day in a Brookline electric that makes me smile every time I think of it. The car was full, with several passengers standing, when it bounced a stout, well preserved person, with white hair beautifully pompadoured. She was dressed in deep mourning, but a bunch of violets in the front of the coat gave a touch of "mitigation" to her grief, which was quite borne out by a mercurial lurking in her mouth and eyes. The lady grasped a strap and looked out of the window. Then suddenly a young person sitting near, observing perhaps that no man in the car intended to offer his seat, rose and leaning forward touched the other on the arm, saying:

"Won't you have my seat?"

"Are you going to get out?" asked the staid one.

"No, ma'am," replied this tactless creature, "but you are older than I, and"—but the sentence was never finished. If a glance could stay, that young person would have fallen on the floor dead.

"Thank you. When I am too old to stand up, I shall not enter a public conveyance."

That was all. The junior woman slunk back into the seat, and some of the passengers tittered. — Cincinnati Enquirer.

A $1,000,000 BEDROOM.

Gorgeous Sleeping Apartment of Ludwig II, the Mad King.

"Half way between Munich and Salzburg is the third castle—Herrenchiemsee—built by Ludwig II," writes Professor J. H. Gore in the July Ladies' Home Journal. "This great structure is incomplete, fortunately for already overtaxed Bavaria, for no one could surmise what its cost would have been. One room alone—the renowned bedchamber—could not be duplicated for less than a million dollars."

"The vaulted ceiling is one great allegorical painting, the rounded cornice is covered with a score of richly framed mural paintings, the walls are panels of hammered gold of intricate designs, and even the floor is of a marvelous pattern. The only suggestion of the purpose of this wonderful room is the sixty thousand dollar bed with its canopy more magnificent than any that covers a regal throne.

"In the gorgeous dining room he had erected a disappearing table, which dropped through the floor when a course was finished, and in its place came up another, set and served. He desired this so that servants would be unnecessary in the room and the most secret state matters could be discussed in safety."

"Many people sought in vain to see the famous room at Herrenchiemsee. Once an actress pleased Ludwig so much by her recitation that she thought it an opportune moment to request permission to see his 'most poetic bedchamber.' She was coolly dismissed for her effrontery, and the servants were ordered to fumigate the room in which she had been received."

Dinnis McGuire's Whisky.
Meagher was full of anecdotes of his famous brigade. One story is too good to be lost. He said he was leading his men to the front in one of the seven days' battles when an aid rode by and announced the news that our army had carried a certain strategic point and several colors. "D'ye hear that, boys?" shouted Meagher. "Our men have won the day and captured the enemy's colors!" "Just as I said that," remarked the general, "a private who was plunging along out of one muddy hole into another, looked up at me and said, 'Ah, general, I'd rather hev a pint of Dinnis McGuire's whisky now than all the colors of the rainbow.'—Donahue's Magazine.

Difficulties.

"There is some one giving away the facts concerning our secret proceedings!" exclaimed one official.

"But we haven't really done anything."

"Of course. And that's the damaging fact which has been divulged."—Washington Star.

The wheat of Mexico amounts in value to nearly $30,000,000 a year. The rice crop is worth $6,000,000. Ten million dollars' worth of beans are grown each year, for beans form a staple article of diet among the peasants.

A CLASH INEVITABLE

Armed Boers Now Concentrating on the Frontier.

STORMY TIME IN THE VOLKSRAAD.

Warlike Harangues Made by Exalted Members Who Were Inflamed by the Action of the British Government Massing Troops in the South. Kruger Councils Moderation.

Cape Town, Sept. 8.—The Boers, it is stated positively, are concentrating on the border.

Pretoria, Sept. 8.—There was great excitement in the volksraad on Mr. Coetzee's interpellation of the government regarding the presence of British troops on the borders and the stoppage of ammunition consigned to the Transvaal.

President Kruger, the members of the executive council, and most of the principal officials were present, together with a large representation of the general public, including many ladies. At the outset the chairman and president urged members to preserve calmness and avoid insulting language.

The state secretary, F. W. Reitz, said he had called the previous day on the British diplomatic agent, Mr. Conyngham Greene, and had asked him what reply the government could give in the volksraad regarding the alleged massing of British troops on the borders, and whether Mr. Greene would communicate with the British high commissioner, Sir Alfred Milner. The reply from Mr. Greene, he continued, had been received and was in the following terms:

"Dear Mr. Reitz—The following is Sir Alfred Milner's reply to the telegram which I sent him at your request: 'I do not know to what Mr. Reitz refers when he alludes to the massing of troops. This must be the British troops in South Africa, the position and number of which are no secret; but that is a matter of common knowledge that they are here in order to protect British interests and to make provision against eventualities.'"

Mr. Coetzee and other members then made violent speeches, declaring that they could not understand Sir Alfred Milner's reply, since the Transvaal had never threatened the English colonies. "It is time," exclaimed Mr. Coetzee, "for the Transvaal also to prepare for eventualities."

One member said: "England's action is like putting a revolver into a man's face."

Another concluded a warlike harangue in this strain: "It is time to send our burghers to the borders to ask these troops what they want. The fire is bound to start. So let them light it and allow it to burn out quickly. War is better than the present state of affairs. Business is ruined and the public treasury is drying up. Chamberlain is trying to ruin the country."

These speeches, and others attacking Cecil Rhodes, were loudly applauded by the house and the public.

Mr. Tosen, who declared that Sir Alfred Milner's reply was tantamount to a declaration of war, read a telegram from the field cornet of the Pietretief district, stating that the people there would rise in rebellion if President Kruger went to another conference.

President Kruger, rising, said: "The aliens have been offered equal rights with the burghers, but have refused them. Mr. Chamberlain is striving to get the franchise, which the outlanders do not want; but what he really desires is possession of the Transvaal. The burghers are willing to concede much for the sake of peace, but will never sacrifice their independence."

He urged the members of the raad to show moderation, reminding them that the reply from Mr. Chamberlain was en route, and pointing out that if the proposal for a commission were agreed to the republic would send delegates to further discuss matters and, if possible, to make peace.

England's Home Force.

Aldershot, England, Sept. 8.—The home force for service in South Africa in the event of war consists of two cavalry brigades and six infantry brigades, the latter including four battalions of the guards and one Irish and one Highland brigade. All the troops indicated are at or near Aldershot. The force would have quite a national character.

Cannot Relax.

London, Sept. 8.—Baron Henry Brougham Loch, former governor of Cape Colony and high commissioner to South Africa, speaking at a banquet, said: "War in South Africa would be very terrible, but if the question of control is raised it will be impossible for us to relax."

Moving on Natal.

Johannesburg, Sept. 8.—It is reliably reported from Pretoria that a special military train with a body of armed men was dispatched to the Natal border on Tuesday night with an equipment of several heavy field guns and a quantity of ammunition.

Purchased by Englishmen.

Denver, Sept. 8.—A deal was closed here by which an English syndicate purchases for $2,500,000 cash the properties of the Big Five Mining company at Ward, Colo. The properties include the Mt. Woll, New Deep, Columbia and other well known gold producers.

Colored Lad Lost.

Wheeling, Sept. 8.—Jack McClelland of Pittsburgh knocked Joe Hopkins, colored of New York in the fifteenth round. The contest was exciting at all stages.

WHILE DINING

A Party of Ten Are Struck by Lightning, Four Fatally.

Tuscola, Ills., Sept. 8.—Lightning struck the grand stand at the Douglas county fair at Camargo, killing two men, fatally injuring two others and seriously disabling six.

The dead: Spencer Brommell, Woodruff, Ills.; Robert Myers, Champaign, Ills. Fatally injured: William Oeder, Champaign, Ills.; John Griest, Urbana, Ills.

The party was eating supper under the grand stand when the flash came.

Independent Distillers.

Louisville, Sept. 8.—The independent distillers of the state met here to hear the report of their committee on the limitation conference with the whisky trust and to formulate plans for the coming season. Resolutions were adopted reciting the failure of the recent New York conference to effect an agreement to control or limit the production of whisky, recommending that no further action in this direction be taken, and urging upon all the independent distillers conservative production in the interest of the trade.

THEY FEAR TROUBLE

French Authorities Dread the Dreyfus Verdict.

REQUEST THE COURT TO DELAY IT.

Decision Will Be Held Over Sunday In Order to Avert Demonstrations on a Day When Workmen Are Free—Some Speculation as to the Outcome.

Rennes, Sept. 8.—With the speech of the government commissary, Major Carriere, the famous Dreyfus case entered upon the final stage of pleadings, and the end is in sight. A verdict is expected on Monday.

There is even talk of the trial ending by holding an extra afternoon session for M. Labori's speech and the deliberation of the judges. This, however, is considered unlikely, as the government is anxious to have the judgment withheld over Sunday in order to avert demonstrations which would probably develop bloodshed on a day when the workmen are free.

The government is not only fearful regarding Rennes, but is particularly concerned regarding Paris and other large towns where passions have been heated, and the verdict, whichever way it is given, is practically certain to give rise to trouble. It is understood that the government has intimated its desire to the president of the court martial, Colonel Jouaust, and there is no reason to believe that he will not fall in with its views.

Colonel Jouaust took the most important decision yet taken, and took it entirely upon his own responsibility, although he is undoubtedly only the mouthpiece of the whole body of judges. His decision to exclude the testimony of Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Major Panizzardi was most significant, as it meant that the court had already reached a conclusion, and that the pleadings of counsel were merely a waste of time and might be dispensed with if they were not a necessity.

The court has made up its mind—but which way? This is the vital point and forms the sole topic of discussion. Both sides are equally confident that the court will decide in accordance with their view. The Dreyfusards declare that the judges can not condemn Captain Dreyfus after rejecting the decisive evidence which Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi would have given in his favor. The anti-Dreyfusards, on the other hand, explain his rulings on the ground that the judges recognize that the evidence of the two military attaches would be worthless, because they would be morally bound to save their agent at any cost.

When the verdict is reached Captain Dreyfus will not be brought back to the court room, and will not be present at the public meeting of the judges, but when the courtroom has been cleared by the gendarmes, which will be done as soon as Colonel Jouaust concludes, the reading clerk of the court will proceed to the room where Dreyfus will be waiting and read to him the verdict in the presence of a couple of gendarmes.

The verdict may be a condemnation, an unequivocal acquittal, or a form of acquittal that will be equal to the Scotch verdict, "Not proven." The last will be the case if the judges should pronounce against him by a vote of 4 to 3. That is, he would be freed, even though the judges in his favor should be in the minority. But this, naturally, would be very unsatisfactory, as he will bear the stigma for the rest of his days.

Captain Dreyfus thus has five chances against the prosecution's three. Unanimity, 6 to 1, 5 to 2, 4 to 3, or 3 to 4 will set him at liberty, while unanimity, 6 to 1 or 5 to 2 will convict him. Extraordinary measures have been taken to spirit Dreyfus away, whether acquitted or recondemned. His departure from Rennes will be enveloped in the same mystery as was his arrival.

Normal Old Age.

The general tendency is for men to live longer. There is much evidence to show that in the fourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth centuries men of 70 were considered very aged, and that a man of 80 was a very rare phenomenon. If medical science, sanitation and general obedience to the laws of health continue to improve, the gauge of normal age may yet rise to 100.—Boston Post.

REALISM WITH A VIM

Tragedy Attends Reproduction of a Cuban Battle.

BULLETS MIXED WITH THE BLANKS

One Person Killed Outright and Two Probably Fatally Shot at a State Fair Entertainment—Other Late Intelligence From Many Points in the Buckeye State.

Columbus, O., Sept. 8.—Revilo R. Smithson, a private of the Fourth Ohio National Guard, was shot through the head and mortally wounded; Charles Krag, 7, was shot through the heart and killed instantly, and Max Gugenheimer, a traveling man, shot in the right side during the progress of Pain's reproduction of the "Battle of San Juan" at the state fair grounds late Thursday night. All of the victims reside in this city. Gugenheimer and the boy Krag were spectators in the grand stand.

The accidents occurred as the American soldiers were closing in on the Spaniards, the soldiers of neither side facing toward the grand stand. A theory advanced is that what is called reduced ammunition, used for target practice in armories, had become mixed with the blanks furnished the soldiers.

The injuries of the last two are slight; those of Secretary O'Shaughnessy are the most severe.

Akron, O., Sept. 8.—"Kidneys," a famous old inn situated at Stow Corners, six miles north of here, was burned to the ground. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The loss is about $4,000.

Fatally Scalded.
Dayton, O., Sept. 8.—While repairing a steam pipe at the Globe iron works George Hungeling was fatally scalded. The steam shot out in Hungeling's face.

Alaskan Boundary.
Washington, Sept. 8.—Secretary Hay left Washington for his summer home in New Hampshire. The negotiations for a modus vivendi respecting the Alaska boundary are in such shape that no delay will ensue from his absence. The agreement settled upon by the secretary and Mr. Tower, the British charge, is expected, will be sanctioned at London, a representative being sent to Canada to secure the views there.

JERRY ROBINSON

Is Said to Be Slated for the Receivership of the C. S. & H. R. R. Co.

Mr. Joseph Robinson, formerly the receiver of both the N. & W. and B. & O. S-W. railway, is again to be honored with an appointment, for it is now understood that he will be the receiver of the Columbus, Shawnee & Hocking railroad. In this connection the Columbus Press-Post says:

"Mr. Robinson's career as a railroad man has been a long and varied one. He was auditor of the old Scioto Valley road when it went into the receiver's hands, to which position he was himself appointed. When the road was absorbed by the N. & W. became the Scioto Valley division of that road he was made superintendent, leaving the N. & W. later to become receiver of the B. & O. S-W.

"That Mr. Robinson will, if he accepts the position of receiver of the C. S. & H., tackle a Herculean task, is beyond dispute. Eight years ago the road might, under careful management, have been made to 'play even,' but with the load of debt that has accumulated since that period, it is next to impossible for a receiver, no matter how competent, to make any headway. There is one thing about the appointment of Mr. Robinson, and that is that it will meet with the approval of the Columbus stockholders who have been compelled to sit helpless and see their property frittered away before their very eyes.—Chillicothe News.

North Pole Mysteries.

The return of an Arctic explorer clears up many mysteries, who says that much new land was discovered in Weddell Sea, and open water was seen far to the south. This shows that the great wall of ice reported by early explorers was a myth. Arctic explorers are not the only ones who meet with deceptions. Many people with indigestion and dyspepsia have been deceived so many times that they believe there is no cure. They can be cured, though hundreds of medicines have failed. THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY
Chicago St. Louis New York Boston

Paul Ludlam of Millville, N. J., Manager of a large pharmacy in that prosperous town, says that one of the medicines most frequently called for is RIPANS TABLETS. He has customers who believe in them as the greatest remedy for all ills of the stomach and he knows others who have been cured by them and constantly speak their praise. One notable case is that of a prosperous farmer, who has an immense place about eight miles away and who drives into town every now and then to renew his supply of RIPANS TABLETS. He told Paul that he had been a sufferer from indigestion and biliousness for several years and old house-wife remedies failed to cure him. "I am not so situated that I can call on a Doctor every time I am affected," said he, "and were it not for RIPANS TABLETS I would not be able to get along with comfort. I began to take them over a year ago and they have invariably aided me. They have practically accomplished a cure of what has been a most severe case of chronic dyspepsia." Not alone in the great cities, but in thousands of towns and hamlets as well, are the virtues of RIPANS TABLETS known, recognized and appreciated as a friend to man. The story of this farmer who would drive eight miles on a country road to reach the nearest drug store twice every month to renew his supply of RIPANS TABLETS is only one instance out of thousands of their wide appreciation.

A new style packet containing the RIPANS TABLETS in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores. For one cent the old style packet is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (400 tablets) can be had by mail by sending forty-cent coin to the Western Chemical Company, No. 19 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (100 tablets) will be sent for five cents.

Arthur Hamm and Miss Clara DeLotell Were Married

At the Bride's Home Thursday Evening—Ross Locke and Miss Sheats Married—Social News.

A quiet wedding took place Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Henry DeLotello, of East Third street. The bride was Miss Clara DeLotello, the youngest daughter of the household. The groom, Mr. Arthur Hamm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hamm, of Gallia avenue, is one of Portsmouth's most promising young business men. For six years he served as book-keeper and private secretary to the late W. A. McFarlin. This week he was appointed successor of Mr. McFarlin as secretary of the Citizens' Savings and Loan association.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's brother, Henry DeLotello, Jr., her wedding plans were changed and the ceremony was said by Rev. W. H. Hargett, in the presence only of the family. Instead of the wedding gown, already for the occasion, the bride wore a plain cloth tailor-made costume. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Hamm will reside on East Third street with the bride's father, for whom she has acted as house-keeper since the death of her mother.

The following was clipped from the Tiffin Daily Tribune: "The home of Edward and the Misses Sheats, on East Perry street, was the scene of a quiet wedding Tuesday evening, when their sister, Carrie M., was united in marriage to Ross B. Locke, of Portsmouth. Only the immediate family and relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. M. Schlick, promptly at 8 o'clock. The bride wore a becoming blue cloth tailor gown and carried a white prayer book. After the ceremony an excellent supper was served. A large number of presents were received by the couple, there being a number from friends at Plymouth, Portsmouth, New London, Kent and Bueyrus. Mr. and Mrs. Locke will be at home to their friends after September 20th, at Portsmouth, where the former is manager of the job rooms of the Portsmouth Times. Mrs. Locke is an excellent young woman and her many friends here wish her happiness in her future life."

Mr. Henry Uhl, of East Fourth, will leave soon for Terre Haute, Ind., to attend school. In honor of his departure his sister, Miss Etta Uhl, entertained the members of the P. N. C. club and their gentlemen friends last evening with a porch and lawn party. Another honored guest of the happy occasion was Miss Georgia Mead's friend, Miss Pearl Honaker, of Weston, W. Va., who visited here several weeks ago. She has since been with relatives at Poplar Plains, Ky., and stopped here on her way home to spend a few days with Miss Mead. Among the pleasures of last evening were games and music. The vocalists were Misses Mary Williams and Miss Nora Uhl; pianists, Misses Mary Williams and Blanche Stokely. Refreshments of ices and cake were served at 10:30 o'clock. During the latter part of the evening most delightful music was furnished by the "Because Trio." The members of this club, which was just recently organized, are Arthur Maule, Elliot Goeller and Dan Lloyd, their instruments being piano, flute and violin.

Mrs. Earl Clare and children, Mrs. Alex. Altman and daughter, Miss Alice, have returned from a week's sojourn at Camp Arion.

meetings, preparatory to sending their usual Christmas box of clothing to the Orphan asylum at St. Louis.

The regular business meeting of Degero of Honor was held last night in The Times hall. The session was very interesting and full of enthusiasm. There are prospects for many candidates in the near future. The next regular business meeting will be held Thursday, September 21st.

A wedding will take place September 26th, at Sciotoville. The bride-to-be is Miss Lida Wolfe, of Sciotoville, and the groom, Mr. Frank D. Davis, a tinner of this city, who resides on East Eleventh.

Miss Clara Kenyon, of this city, who is studying the profession of trained nurse at Bellevue hospital, New York, has recovered from the muscular trouble which for a time rendered her unable to attend to her duties.

About thirty dollars was the financial result of the supper last evening at Sixth Street Methodist church.

Lieut. George Sellow, who was one of the teachers at the Portsmouth Military Academy during its flash-light existence, has been appointed professor of mathematics at Knox college, Galesburg, Ill. Mrs. Sellow was formerly Miss Isabel Murray, of this city, a niece of Mrs. A. T. Johnson.

Miss Genevieve Lloyd's cousin, Miss Flora Field, of London, England, who has frequently visited relatives in this city, is now traveling in Scotland, in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Voorheis and daughter, of Cincinnati. Mr. and Mrs. Voorheis are expected here for a visit some time this fall. They intended sailing for home in September or October, when last heard from.
